Headteacher's Note:

I hope that you all had a restful half term and that the children are ready for this full, exciting half term.

Just a reminder: if children bring a healthy snack (ie fruit) for playtime - it MUST be put in their coat pocket or their drawer in the classroom - not in their lunchboxes as they should only open their lunchboxes at dinner time. Also there should be plain water in their bottles for in the classroom not juice.

Thank you for your understanding and your continued support, Mrs L J Stinchon

Trawden is...

the blossoming flower hidden in the undergrowth;

the glistening sun disguised by the clouds.

the ellipsis at the end of the page;

the ever-changing weather that dominates the Earth.

the North Star on a dark night;

a faithful guide dog showing the way.

the rose in a bouquet of flowers;

the tree in a marooned desert.

the eager chick waiting to learn more;

a puppy dog racing for the finish.

Trawden is...

some wise followers on a faraway land;

the intelligent dolphin plotting its plan.

the vibrant colours in a tropical rainforest;

the largest present on Christmas Day.

is a jester, releasing the fun;

Trawden is the happiness that teaches you to run, fearlessly... through life.
